

A photograph of two women hiking on a dirt trail through a lush, green forest. The woman in the foreground is wearing a green plaid shirt over a white tank top and black leggings, smiling as she walks. The woman behind her is wearing a striped shirt and light-colored pants, also smiling. The forest is dense with trees and foliage, and the lighting is soft and natural.

Navigating a maze of waist-high grasses and unmarked jungle paths, our foursome made steady—if not exactly direct—progress toward the Banyan Cliffs. This was the longest of our day hikes. We knew we had to travel light and be ready for anything.
